The Norway Heritage Project would appreciate your support!

The Norway Heritage web site is a culmination of hard work and commitment to providing free access to material concerning our heritage. Maintaining this non-profit project requires some kind of financial support. If you appreciate all the work that has been put down to present, and making this material available to you, please consider supporting the project by making a donation. You can find more information on the Sponsor Page if you would like to make a contribution. Thanks, Børge Solem
